Drum Dance Chant

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION

Join Sherryl Sewepagaham and learn some of the songs and dances of the First Nations and Metis people. You will learn original and social traditional language and chant songs using hand drums, sticks, and rattles. Sherryl has also taught the Orff methodology in her classroom and will share some of those activities that she has developed. Bring a recording device as many of the songs are taught in the traditional style of "oral tradition" so that you can share with your students.

SHERRYL SEWEPAGAHAM

Sherryl Sewepagaham is of Cree-Dene descent and is from the Little Red River Cree Nation in northern Alberta. She currently lives in Vancouver, BC where she is studying Music Therapy at Capilano University. Sherryl brings her years of experience as an elementary music teacher and Aboriginal music consultant into her education workshops. She has been providing workshops using the drum and voice to educate, heal and empower for both children and adults. Sherryl is also an Orff specialist and received her Level III Orff certification in 2007.
